UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT IN PSYCHOLOGY,
CLASS OF 2020

»When I came to Webster Vienna I had a lot of questions regarding payments. I went to the finance office where the Senior Finance Officer made me feel welcome. She was kind and made sure I completely understood everything. A small student to staff/faculty ratio is one of the best things a university can offer its students because it fosters productivity and aids students in attaining success. I am very happy that at Webster it is possible to have one on one conversations with the staff and professors.«

SPONSORSHIP

Organizations or individuals may sponsor a student's education at Webster and can obtain tax benefits by sponsoring their employee's education.

TAX PAYERS

In many countries educational expenses are tax deductible. Parents and student tax payers should check with their tax advisor to determine if they may claim (part of) the educational expenses on their yearly tax return. Austrian citizens: Students employed full-time may deduct educational expenses ("Weiterbildung/Ausbildung/Umschulung") from their taxes if they can demonstrate that their coursework is necessary for their employment, or is part of the training for a new career. The amount refunded by the tax authorities in Austria depends on the student's income.

PRIVATE STUDENT LOAN PROGRAMS

Webster Vienna cooperates with Austrian banks such as Erste Bank, Wüstenrot, Raiffeisenbank, Bank Austria for individual student loans. To determine if an Austrian private loan, or a loan from a bank or private lender in your country of origin, is the right choice for you, please visit our website or contact our Senior Finance and Financial Aid Officer.

REIMBURSEMENT BY INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS FOR UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

Parents employed at international organizations such as UN, UNIDO, IAEA, CTBTO, etc. can approach their employer to determine if they are eligible for partial reimbursement of educational expenses.

U.S. FINANCIAL AID

American citizens and greencard holders are eligible for various forms of financial assistance from the U.S. government, including student loans and VA benefits. Loans include Stafford, PLUS, or private U.S. educational loans for undergraduate and graduate students. A Pell Grant is also available for undergraduate students depending on eligibility.

AUSTRIAN FEDERAL FINANCIAL AID

Austrian citizens and non-Austrian students whose parents have been employed in Austria for a minimum of five years may be eligible for assistance from the Austrian government (Familienbeihilfe, Studienunterstützung, Selbsterhalterstipendien, etc.). For more information, please visit oeh.ac.at or stipendium.at
