

Webster Vienna Training Scholarship (WVTS)
Research Assistant

Department: Business & Management
Duration: Spring 2022, February 7 - April 29, 2022
Estimated weekly workload in hours: 15
Program Level: UG
Supervisor/Professor: Dr. Pernille Eskerod

Expected tasks and responsibilities to fulfill during the scholarship:

Tasks	Estimated Time Spent on Responsibilities
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To support an international research project carried out with University of Sydney about Community Stakeholder Engagement in Infrastructure Projects. Tasks will include literature search, literature review write-up, primary data collection through phone/online interviews, secondary data collection online, qualitative data analyses, interaction with colleagues in Australia and more (approx. 10 hours/week) 	approx. 10 hours/week
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To support the production of teaching materials for BUSN 2825 	approx. 3 hours/week
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To support other activities (to be determined) 	approx. 2 hours/week

Qualifications needed to accomplish tasks and responsibilities:

- A good result in BUSN 2825 or similar research methodology courses
- Experience in conducting literature reviews (systematic search and APA-styled write-up)
- Willing to initiate and conduct phone/online interviews with practitioners
- Open, flexible and solution-oriented
- Able to work independently and diligently
- Having good communication skills (in writing and orally)
- Experience with interviewing would be an advantage
- Knowledge about social media would be an advantage

Documents required for application:

- CV
- Letter of Motivation